

Faith, Learning, Service, Care and Community - our values are at the core of everything we do. In 2025 these values contributed to the continued culture of collaboration and commitment between students, their families and staff resulting in exceptional academic results and unique student experiences.

In 2025 we retained 91.6% of our staff, with the depth of experience among the teachers being a key strength of our School. 73% of our teaching staff bring more than eight years of experience into the classrooms they teach. The benefit of this experience can be seen in our students' achievements.

In NAPLAN, St Stephen's School performed above both the State and National averages across all assessed domains and across every year level tested. The Year 12 cohort achieved outstanding results including

- Highest performing ATAR students in Literature, Marine & Maritime, Modern History and Physical Education Studies in Western Australia.
- 165 students achieved their WACE
- 81 students completed 286 VET certificates.

These achievements highlight a school community that continues to invest deeply in its people, its values and the success of every student.
